Memorandum

Date: September 7, 2016

To: Honorable Chairman Jean Monestime
and Members, Board of County Commissioners

From: Carlos A. Gimenez
Mayor

Subject: Recommendation of Tourist Development Council Board Appointments

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Board of County Commissioners adopt the attached resolution approving the re-appointments of the following four (4) nominees to the Tourist Development Council: Hemant Patel, Danielle Torres, City of Miami Commissioner Keon Hardemon, and City of Miami Beach Commissioner Micky Steinberg. In addition, it is recommended that the Board of County Commissioners waive the term limits of Section 2-11.38.2 of the Code of Miami-Dade County, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote, in order to reappoint the following nominee to the Tourist Development Council: Olga Ramudo.

Background

On April 4, 1978, the Board of County Commissioners adopted Ordinance No. 78-28, pursuant to State Statute No. 125.0104, establishing the Tourist Development Council (TDC). The Ordinance and Statute specify that the TDC is a nine (9) member volunteer board that includes: a County Commissioner, who is appointed by the chair of the governing Board of the County; two (2) elected municipal officials, at least one (1) of whom must be from the most populous municipality in the County; three (3) owners or operators of motels, hotels, or other tourist accommodations in the County and subject to the tourist development tax; and three (3) persons involved in the tourist industry and that have verifiably demonstrated interest in the tourist development of Miami-Dade County, but who are not owners or operators of motels, hotels, or other tourist accommodations in the County and are subject to the tourist development tax.

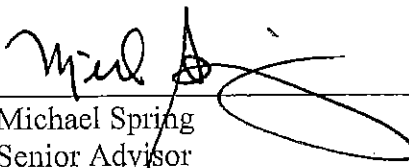

Further, all members of the TDC must be electors of the County and shall serve staggered terms of four (4) years as determined in the appointing resolution. As a result of five (5) anticipated vacancies on the TDC Board due to the expiration of current terms, a public nominations process was implemented to fill these positions. These positions require: two (2) elected municipal officials, at least one (1) of whom shall be from the most populous municipality in the County; two (2) owners or operators of motels, hotels or other tourist accommodations in the County and subject to the tourist development tax; and one (1) person who is involved in the tourist industry and that has a demonstrated interest in tourist development, but is not an owner or operator of motels, hotels, or other tourist accommodations in the County and subject to the tourist development tax.

In response to the advertisement for nominations, credentials of eligible candidates for the TDC were submitted and reviewed by the Tourist Development Council Nominating Committee. Present at the meeting were: William Talbert, President and CEO, Greater Miami Convention and Visitors Bureau; Commissioner Bruno Barriero, Chairperson, Tourist Development Council; Stuart Blumberg, Vice-Chairperson, Tourist Development Council; and Michael Spring, Senior Advisor, Office of the Mayor. Based on a thorough review of qualifications, the Tourist Development Council Nominating Committee unanimously voted to recommend these candidates to fill the vacancies on the TDC Board:

Commissioner Micky Steinberg

Growing up in Miami Beach and having four generations of family currently living here, Micky Steinberg understands the value of having a strong quality of life for all residents and businesses. Elected in 2013 to the City Commission, Micky brought her teamwork approach to City Hall and has championed issues from strengthening the ethics ordinances to human rights and easing traffic congestion. She has also helped strengthen Miami Beach's local public schools and to improve the quality of life in Miami Beach.

Micky has a long record of community involvement. Her strong commitment to Miami beach included serving as a member of the Miami Beach Visitor and Convention Authority Committee and the Miami Beach Police Citizens Relations Committee. She has also been involved with various non profit organizations including the Greater Miami Jewish Federation and Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Miami. She is also a lifetime member of Hadassah. Because of her efforts to better our community, Micky was recognized as a Woman of Valor by the Aventura Turnberry Jewish Center.

Micky Steinberg started her career in the hospitality industry in Miami Beach, where she worked to improve the experience of residents and visitors by focusing on customer service. After several years in the hospitality industry, Micky shifted her career to real estate. As a licensed realtor, she put to work her knowledge of Miami Beach's diverse real estate market to work for her clients.

Micky's fondest moments have been the time spent with her grandmother, who played a central role in her upbringing. To this day Micky continues to share a special bond with her grandmother, a long time Miami Beach resident. Micky and her sisters were taught the values of hard work and determination by her parents. In July 2005, Micky married Richard Steinberg, a Miami Beach native whose family is dedicated to public service. They are the proud parents of two amazing children, Chloe and JD.

Olga M. Ramudo

Express Travel

President & CEO

After years of being a stay at home mother, Olga Ramudo decided to venture into the travel business by becoming an independent contractor for a small travel agency. Partnering with her sister and a best friend, that part time job took them further when they decided to start their own business in 1989.

Specializing in the Hispanic market and with a strong commitment to community involvement and customer service, Express Travel became one of the top ten travel agencies in Miami, later expanding its reach to the State of Florida as well as offering services all over the world.

Olga Ramudo has conspicuously pioneered and led the charge to not only promote and grow the South Florida tourism industry, but also has provided an outstanding public role model as a successful women owned business who has always found the time to serve the South Florida community and her industry through leadership appointments on numerous local, state and international organizations. She has been a prominent tourism community leader for over 20 years and has volunteered for leadership positions on hundreds of local events, which have resulted in millions of dollars of economic impact and new jobs for South Florida's local and State tourism. Additionally, Olga has donated her time and experience to many organizations serving on committees to promote bilingual education in order to maintain the "Gateway of the Americas" designation for South Florida.

Express Travel has received numerous awards and recognitions throughout the years, including one of the largest and fastest growing Hispanic companies in the nation, and one of the largest women owned business in the State of Florida

Olga Ramudo has also been recognized as one of the top influential women business leaders in Miami Dade County by Camacol (Latin Chamber of Commerce) and listed as one of "Best of Miami" by Miami Today in recognition for promoting international trade. The Organization of Women in International Trade of Florida bestowed her with the International Business Woman of the Year award and the American Society of Travel Agents paid tribute to Olga at their annual gala dinner by honoring her with the national advocacy award in recognition of her significant contribution on behalf of the travel agency community before federal, state and local governments. ASTA also recognized her with the "Travel Agent of the Year" award in 2011. The World Trade Center Miami awarded Olga with the 2012 International Woman's Day Award for her contribution in promoting international trade in the Americas.

On January 2012, the Secretary of Commerce appointed Olga Ramudo to the U. S. Travel and Tourism Advisory Board. This board advises the Secretary of Commerce on matters relating to the travel and tourism industry in the United States. She was reappointed to a second term of the board on April 2014.

Olga Ramudo sits on the Executive Board of Directors of the Beacon Council and the board of directors of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce. She also sits on the Board of Camacol (Latin Chamber of Commerce) as their international representative. Miami's Board of County Commissioners appointed Olga to Dade County's Tourism Development Council. Olga also chairs the joint Hispanic initiatives committee for ASTA (American Society of Travel Agents) and NTA (National Tour Association). Olga has also been appointed to the International Women's Forum and was recognized with the Red Cross Spectrum Entrepreneurial award. The Coral Gables Board of County commissioners recently appointed Olga to their economic development board.

The Governor of Florida awarded Olga with the Governor's Business Award on August of 2013.

In 2015 the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce awarded Olga with the Executive of the Year Award. Express Travel has been the only United States travel agency to receive the Ambassador of Religious Tourism by Castilla and Leon in Spain.

Expresss Travel is comprised of corporate, leisure, groups, meeting and incentivess, cruise, study abroad and spa and wellness departments.

Olga studied in Puerto Rico and has two grown sons and a granddaughter.
